

Knowing what human trafficking looks like and who to call when you see it will help us end this horrific crime, one victim at a time.

- Sheriff Dr. Gregory Tony
SERVICE EQUALS REWARD

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Sheriff Gregory Tony, Ph.D.
sheriff.org

RECOGNIZING THE SIGNS

Victims may be:

- Without identification
- Monitored when talking or interacting with others
- Recruited for one purpose but made to engage in another
- Forced to perform commercial sex acts
- Threatened if they attempt to leave
- Unable to contact loved ones
- Harmed, deprived of food, water, sleep or other necessities

WHERE TO GET HELP

Call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1(888)373-7888 or text “Help” or “Info” to 233733. Available 24 hours, 7 days a week. Your call is confidential. For more information, visit humantraffickinghotline.org.

Sheriff Gregory Tony, Ph.D.
sheriff.org