

Beware of

Romance Scams

Sheriff Gregory Tony, Ph.D.

Scammers will use social media and dating websites to target seniors.

These imposters create fake profiles, build online relationships and try to solicit money or sensitive personal information from victims in the name of love.

If you have been the victim of a scam, scan the QR code to contact your local BSO district office or call BSO's non-emergency number at 954-764-HELP (4357).

"If it sounds too good to be true, it usually is. Never provide personal information or send money to someone you don't know. Protect yourself from becoming a victim."
